

Newsflash 1

Precise Voting has been certified by ETL for product safety and emissions as of August 12, 2008.

nThis device complies with Part 15 of the FCC Rules. Operation is subject to the following two conditions: (1) this device may not cause harmful interference, and (2) this device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation.

nThis device is authorized to bear the ETL label under the Intertek Multiple Listing Program.